

THREATEN A TIE-UP OF NEW HAVEN R.R. SYSTEM IF NON-UNION MEN USED

Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen Who Are Conducting Strike on New York, Boston & Westchester, R. R. Make the Threat

THAT LINE SUBSIDIARY TONENHAVEN SYSTEM

Motormen and Conductors Are Striking and the Company Officials Have Made Plans to Replace Them With Non-Union Men—General Strike May Be Called

New York, Aug. 23.—A threat to call a general strike on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad if non-union men are employed to replace striking motormen and conductors on the New York, Boston & Westchester railroad, an electric line subsidiary to the New Haven road, was made today by officials of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Railway trainmen, who are conducting the strike.

The general strike threat followed an announcement by the company that it would employ "outside workers" if necessary in order to resume operation on the road, which had been tied up since Thursday, and insertion in newspapers of advertisements calling for men to replace the strikers. This morning no effort had been made to restore service.

The walkout occurred after the company, which recently granted a 25 per cent wage increase, refused to meet further demands for a 30 per cent raise. The motormen, in asking for higher pay, asserted they were entitled to as much as engineers on steam railroads.

Officials of the New Haven road declined to comment on the general strike threat.

RUMANIA HOLDS OUT

On Signing of the Treaty with Austria on Minorities Guarantees.

Paris, Thursday, Aug. 21.—Rumania's signature to the treaty of peace with Austria still depends upon modifications of the clauses relating to guarantees to minorities, according to the information from authoritative Rumanian sources. (Paris advises Friday said the Austrian treaty had been completed and will be transmitted to the Austrians Monday.) The Rumanians point out that by royal decrees which will be approved by the new Chamber of Deputies to be elected in September, minorities, not only in the new territory attached to Rumania, but in the old kingdom, have been more amply protected than the peace treaty provides. Rumania, however, does not desire to have forced upon her, it is said, provisions which it is feared would be interpreted by the minorities as giving them really the upper hand.

CRUCIAL DAYS JUST

AHEAD FOR KOLCHAK

If He Survives the Strain of 30 Days It Is Possible That His Government in Russia Will Triumph and Bolshevik Will Subside

Washington, D. C., Aug. 23.—Ambassador Morris, who was sent by the state department from Tokyo to Omsk to report on conditions in Siberia has advised the government here that the next thirty days probably will see a crisis in the affairs of the Kolchak government. He reported that Admiral Kolchak has had to devote so much attention to the military campaign against the bolshevik that he has been unable to organize sufficiently the civil government and administration in Siberia to keep the people contented. Nevertheless, he added, Kolchak is the best man for the task confronting him and that it is a question of his success or the triumph of the bolshevik.

Lack of material aid from the allies has been a tremendous handicap for Kolchak, the report states and has led to friction between the military commanders of the Kolchak forces.

Military authorities in Paris and here, however, agree that the bolshevik are making their last desperate effort against the Kolchak troops and if they fail this time the soviet government in Russia will collapse.

Recognition of the Kolchak government, if it succeeds in surviving the next 30 days, has been urged by Ambassador Morris, it is understood. To make this recognition effective, the ambassador has urged that this government, it is understood, be ready to assist in the negotiation of loans for the Siberian government and dispatch additional arms and ammunitions and later food and clothing.

THREATS TO HOARDERS

PRODUCE FOOD

Thousands of Pounds Have Already Been Released for Consumption in New York After Jail Sentences

Had Been Promised.

New York, Aug. 23.—Thousands of pounds of food stored in New York City have been released for consumption recently after agents of the United States attorney's office had threatened the owners with jail sentences, if they continued to hold the goods, it was learned today. Earl B. Barnes, assistant district attorney, said his office preferred to circulate food, rather than to prosecute hoarders and profiteers, but dealers who refused to release food held for higher prices would be vigorously prosecuted.

The sale of surplus army foodstuffs at city school buildings has far exceeded expectations. Experts estimate that 60,000 pounds of food will be sold during the course of the sales here. Army bacon has been the article most in demand. About 95 per cent of the purchasers have been women.

PLUNGED OVER NIAGARA GORGE.

Automobile Carried Two Women and a Girl to Death.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Aug. 23.—Two women and a small girl were killed and a boy was severely injured when an automobile went over the Niagara gorge bank, a drop of 150 feet, early last night. The dead are Mrs. Catherine Lyall, Mrs. Edna Del, her daughter, and Catherine Del, the three-year-old daughter of Mrs. Del. Kenneth Kruger, nine years old, a nephew of Mrs. Del, was severely injured but will recover. All live in Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Del, who was driving the car along a street paralleling the gorge, apparently lost control, and the machine jumped the curb, crashed through a hedge and over a lawn bordering the gorge. It is thought that Mrs. Del became confused, stepping on the accelerator, for the car gained speed and shot over the gorge bank.

Mrs. Del and the children were thrown out of the car on the path leading to the Maid of the Mist landing, about 250 feet south of the cantilever bridge. The car bounded off the path and with Mrs. Lyall still in it hurtled about 50 feet farther down, almost to the gorge route tracks. Mrs. Lyall and Catherine Del were instantly killed. Mrs. Del died in the hospital after she and the injured boy had been carried up the steep bank by police-men and firemen.

The street committee of the Montpelier city council met R. S. Currier, assistant to the state highway commissioner, Friday afternoon relative to the continuation of the work which has been done on lower State street. The committee want to continue the work in a similar manner. They wanted to know what way the state could aid the city, if any, in handling the problem; but in view of the fact that one job is resurfacing and the other new construction, they could be given but little encouragement.

CARRANZA PLANNING TO CONFISCATE OIL PROPERTY OF ALIENS

Officials of United States Government Are Somewhat Disturbed by the Apparent Determination of Mexico.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 23.—Officials here are somewhat disturbed by an apparent determination on the part of Carranza and his official advisers in Mexico City to confiscate the oil property of foreigners, including Americans, in spite of the protests lodged with the Mexican government by all the nations whose nationals have investments in Mexico. This is borne out by the following official statement recently made by Ing. F. Vasquez Schiaffino, chief of the petroleum bureau of the department of industry, commerce and labor:

"The steps taken by the petroleum bureau have followed a program whose main points may be summarized as follows: To engage in a work of propaganda and diffusion of all data relating to the petroleum industry, so as to interest national capital and to invite the attention of Mexican industrialists, professional men and workmen in order that they may play an active and important part in the development of this industry, making it in a short time an essentially and genuinely Mexican industry."

This official statement, which it is believed here was inspired by Carranza, coupled with the advice of Luis Cabrera, secretary of the treasury, urging the supreme court to be in no hurry in considering the petroleum questions now before it, has reported great interest in industrial circles. The petroleum cases now before the Mexican supreme court are there on the insistence of the American state department, which asked the American oil companies to inform all the requirements of the Mexican law step by step, from the lowest courts to the highest courts in the land.

The opinion of all classes in Mexico, as reported in the Mexico City newspapers and transmitted to the state department, is for a prompt and correct settlement of the petroleum question, which has been declared to be the key to relations between the United States and Mexico.

Newspapers and citizens, according to reports to the state department, urge that because of the recognized danger of intervention Mexico at least protect foreign investments, even if she cannot stop the murder of foreign citizens.

Don Carlos Dufio, the eminent Mexican economist, asserts that foreign capital is absolutely necessary to the development of Mexico's resources, because Mexicans have not the capital to put into the extensive enterprises and would not invest it if they had it.

MIDDLEBURY BURGLAR ARRESTED.

Much Loot Found in Room—Thought to Have Operated in Various Vt. Towns.

Middlebury, Aug. 23.—The capture of a man Friday morning who had registered at the Middlebury inn as G. Stanton of New York City, is thought to have solved the mystery of the numerous recent burglaries in this place and surrounding cities, much loot having been found in his room and evidence that the man was a professional and desperate character.

The latest burglary was in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Huntley early Thursday morning, when someone entered the house, ransacked every room and finally entered the room where Mrs. Huntley was sleeping, stumbling over something and awakening her by the resulting noise, snatching Mr. Huntley's watch from a table near the door and fleeing downstairs as Mrs. Huntley jumped from her bed and tried to get to the hallway. She was in time to see the man, who called back to her "I shoot. I shoot." Word was sent at once to the night watchman, Charles Shaw, but in the meantime the burglar had plenty of time to escape, going down Main street toward the village.

Mr. Shaw, who had noticed a suspicious looking man on the street only a few moments before he learned of the robbery, came to the Huntley house and investigated and then went to the railroad station to see that the man did not leave on the train, but saw nothing of him.

About 1 o'clock Friday morning, Policeman Shaw saw a stranger acting suspiciously at a side door of the John H. Stewart hardware store and, thinking he was trying to break in, he watched him for a few minutes, but the would-be burglar heard the crunching of the gravel under the policeman's feet and started to leave the place, being, however, followed by the watchman, and questioned as to his intentions that time of night. The man claimed to be looking for a friend, but finally admitted he was staying at the inn. To this hotel he was taken, other officers of the law were summoned and his room, which he had taken two days before, was searched.

Here were found five suit cases, most of them filled with articles which appeared to have been stolen, including several new and very expensive toilet sets, several watches, new outfits of clothes and considerable money in small change. The Huntley watch was among the loot, and was positively identified by Mrs. Huntley yesterday.

The man had nothing to say and was locked up in the Addison county jail. It is believed that the burglar has been working systematically in Burlington, Rutland and Middlebury, an expense slip showing that the man had been in Rutland and apparently at the same time that a burglary was committed at the Howley Clothing store in that city. It is also thought that the man has been working in league with someone else, who was selling articles which were stolen.

The suspected man wore a pair of heavy tortoise shell spectacles at the time of his arrest, but it was said around the hotel that he did not wear them when he appeared in the daytime. He is about 30 years old.

MEXICAN TROOPS AID AMERICANS

Carranza's Soldiers Operating South of Conchos River Region

NO MORE TROOPS SENT INTO MEXICO

Major General Dickman Has Returned to San Antonio, Texas

Marfa, Texas, Aug. 23.—Two forces of troops, Carranza federals operating far to the south and American cavalry farther north, to-day are scouring the Conchos river region of Mexico in an endeavor to clear that section of bandits who precipitated an expedition into the southern republic by capturing and holding for ransom two American army aviators. Five bandits here have been killed so far.

Major General Joseph T. Dickman, commander of the southern department, left last night for San Antonio after familiarizing himself with the details of the punitive expedition. Before leaving, the general said an effort would be made to pay the bandits the $6,500 ransom of the ransom money for the aviators. The possibility of using bombs in wiping out the bandits developed with the arrival of aerial bombs for experimental purposes and an announcement that these might be used if a bandit force should be found in any considerable numbers.

Reports that the expeditionary forces would be withdrawn at an early date had no foundation, General Dickman said the expedition would remain in Mexico as long as they were following a hot trail. There was no explanation of the sending of the order for additional troops to support the punitive expedition.

SUGGESTS RECIPROCAL BORDER GUARD

Secretary Cabrera of Mexico Thinks That Would Be a Step Toward Preventing Clashes Between United States and Mexico.

Mexico City, Friday, Aug. 22.—Luis Cabrera, secretary of the treasury, stated in an interview that the Mexican and American governments should reach an agreement for a reciprocal border guard service as a step toward preventing clashes between the two countries.

Vignio Bonillas, Mexican ambassador at Washington, according to Sen. Cabrera, would be "eminently fitted" for conducting negotiations with this object. The difficulties which prevented the adoption of such an agreement at Atlantic City in 1916 were due to the fact that the American delegation wanted the agreement signed immediately, he said, while the Mexican commission held out for a withdrawal of the Pershing expedition before reaching an agreement.

Sen. Cabrera pointed out that at present such a difficulty would not be met with, since the early withdrawal of the 8th cavalry, now pursuing bandits in the state of Chihuahua, was expected.

Neither of the two occupants of the car was hurt.

BARRE'S CELEBRATION OF LABOR HOLIDAY

Address by Rev. J. B. Reardon, Baseball Contests, Sports, Dancing, Music and Other Features, Mostly at Inter-city Park, Monday, Sept. 1.

Barre will have a Labor day celebration on Monday, Sept. 1, and the arrangements already made indicate that the observance of labor's especial holiday will be one of unusual interest. The exercises and most of the features of the program will be held at Inter-city park and will commence in the forenoon and continue through the remainder of daylight, closing with a dance in Howland hall in this city in the evening.

The speaker of the day will be Rev. J. B. Reardon, pastor of the Barre Universalist church, who will take as his subject "The American Ideal of Manhood." Rev. Mr. Reardon is an eloquent speaker and a stout champion of labor, so that the audience will be assured of something interesting. The address will be given at 1:30 in the afternoon.

But prior to the address there will be a program of sports at the athletic field in the park, as well as a baseball game between the Barre A. C. and the Moretown A. C., the winner of that match to have the privilege of meeting the Graniteville A. C. in the afternoon. A purse of $100 is offered in this competition, and as the three teams are strong aggregations it is expected that some real sport will be shown. The morning game starts at 10:30 and the afternoon game at 3 o'clock.

For music the Barre City band will be in attendance and will play at intervals during the day's program.

The judges of the sports will be Thomas A. Nichols, John S. McDonald and John Geale, and the sports will include a wide range of events for both men and women, with special races for the younger people of both sexes. Money prizes and valuable articles are offered as rewards for the winners. Refreshments will be served on the grounds, William Eager being the chairman of that feature, while Arthur Lund is chairman of the transportation arrangements and S. N. Parker is chairman of the music.

The entire day's celebration will be in charge of the Barre Central Labor union, with Alex. Ironside as president, Angus McDonald as secretary and Fred W. Sutor as treasurer.

WORKMEN FORMING SUBSCRIPTION CLUBS

TO BUY PEERLESS STOCK

Trow & Holden Co.'s Employees Are Showing Their Interest in the Industry Which It Is Proposed to Bring to Barre.

Indicative of the lively interest which the entire community is manifesting in the Peerless knitting mill project is the commendable action taken by the employees of Trow & Holden. There, the workmen are forming a club with the idea of purchasing two blocks of stock of $500 each, thereby entitling them to two shares of common stock. The men are showing a good deal of enthusiasm, and their public spirited enterprise has attracted so much attention that employees of other industrial concerns are seriously considering the possibilities of copying the Trow & Holden plan.

A picked squadron of canvassers, many of whom earned their spurs during the various successful war drives in Barre, is getting ready for the final drive Tuesday and Wednesday. Already teams selected from the Granite Manufacturers' association are at work on territory assignments among the granite plants, and thus far the response has served to emphasize the fact that industrial Barre is keenly alive to the dangers of a labor situation which the advent of the new knitting mill will greatly help to alleviate. Out of town interest also is pitched at high C, and many inquiries which Secretary W. A. Drove of the Board of Trade has received point to the fact that our neighbors repose a strong measure of faith in the new project.

According to a citizen who has himself invested heavily in the new factory, the movement now under way and the support it receives resolves itself into a question of whether people who live in Barre and call it home believe in their city, in its future and in its possibilities. Another way before Barre with sufficient earnestness to help boost in a tangible way. Whether you realize that Barre, the wide-awake city of Vermont, has wonderful present potentialities. Nothing can check the development of Barre, but the indifference of her own citizens. Nothing can stop it if her citizens will manifest their loyalty in a practical way.

DEATH OF YOUNG MAN.

The young man was born in Barre Aug. 31, 1898, and would, therefore, have attained the age of 21 had he lived until the 31st of this month. After living in Barre he moved with his parents to East Barre, later returning here where he has resided since. He attended the local public schools and worked for a time at the granite plant of Robins Brothers, later being employed in the wholesale granite office of W. C. Townsend & Co.

Slack of the Vermont supreme court have been appointed to attend the annual meeting of the American Bar association, which occurs in Boston Sept. 3, 4, 5. UNIFORM BILL IS PROPOSED

Between Granite Quarry Owners and Quarry Workers of the Country

SIMILAR IN SCOPE TO 'CUTTERS' AGREEMENT

That and New Apprentice Schedule Were Discussed By Barre Men Last Night

A uniform national labor agreement between quarry owners and quarry workers, modeled along the lines of the national agreement reached by the International Monumental Granite Producers' association and the Granite Cutters' International association in Boston last spring, is in prospect as the result of action taken at the annual convention of the I. M. G. P. A. recently concluded in Columbus, Ohio.

Members of the delegation representing the Barre district at Columbus reported on the convention proceedings at a special meeting of the Barre Granite Manufacturers' association last evening. The proposed conference between the quarry workers and the producers was an especially pertinent topic, for the reason that lumps, boxers and derrickmen employed in the cutting plants in the Barre district are affiliated with the Quarry Workers' International Association of North America. Inasmuch as the wage increase effective Aug. 1 applied only to members of the G. C. I. A., lumps, boxers and derrickmen were not included. It is probable that the proposed conference, as officially suggested by Sec. F. W. Sutor in his communication to the I. M. G. P. A., will be held in the near future, and therefore any wage revisions contemplated in behalf of the quarry workers, lumps, boxers and derrickmen may not be long deferred.

In the event that the conference is held, the national associations of building granite and paving producers will be represented along with the monumental producers, as their employees all belong to the same union.

At the meeting last night it was reported that the new wage schedule for apprentice granite cutters, which the Barre delegation, acting upon instructions from the association, recommended, at Columbus, had been endorsed. This schedule goes back to every granite-producing center of the country with the urgent recommendation of the international association. Naturally it was unanimously ratified by the Barre association last evening. The revised scale provides
